The Birds of Lake Barrington Shores

We know about the trees that surround our lake, and the sailing and kayaking our lake provides. Here's a look at various birds who "flock" to Lake Barrington. Some live here year round, others pass through during migration season, and still others come here for food. Here are some of the birds who have visited us. All were photographed right here at Lake Barrington Shores.

PET PARTNERS "WALK WITH ME" WITH SOUL HARBOUR RANCH THERAPY MINI HORSES & THERAPY DOGS

RESCHEDULED DATE

Saturday, August 30 at 10:00am

Lake Barrington Shores is proud to partner with SOUL Harbour Ranch and the Pet Partners "Walk with Me" program!

You already know walking is good for you. But did you know that people who walk with an animal are more likely to meet physical activity recommendations? LBS residents and their guests are encouraged to come walk (with or without your pet) and we'll be joined by our friends at Soul Harbor Ranch and their mini therapy horses and therapy dogs. The little guys will accompany us on our walk to get their daily exercise!

Meet at Marina Rooftop. 30 minute walk followed by 30 minute social.
Weather Permitting. No sign-up required.

*The SOUL Harbour Ranch Animal Therapy Program (501(c)3) offers Animal-Assisted Interventions (fun activity, therapy and educational visits and programs) within the Barrington and surrounding communities with their registered mini therapy horses, mini therapy donkeys and therapy dogs. They visit nursing homes, homes for the disabled, community outings and even hospitals!

LIVING YOUR BEST AT LBS PRESENTS...

TITANIC SURVIVOR - VIOLET JESSOP

A FIRST-PERSON HISTORICAL PORTRAYAL BASED ON THE TRUE STORY
WRITTEN AND PERFORMED BY LESLIE GODDARD

Wednesday, September 3rd
Lodge - Ballroom

When the HMHS Britannic sank during World War 1, few survivors emerged with a toothbrush. Violet Jessop, however, had hers, remembering what she had missed after the sinking of the RMS Titanic (the Britannic's identical sister ship in 1912). The only person to survive both sinkings, Jessop tells unforgettable stories of the terrifying disasters and gives a fascinating glimpse at life behind the scenes on the most glamorous luxury liners of their day.

Based on Jessop's memoir, Titanic Survivor, published in 1998.

Trained as a historian, Leslie Goddard earned a Ph.D. from Northwestern University specializing in U.S. history, cultural history and women's studies. She also holds both a master's and a bachelor's degree in theater and has worked in the field of museum education for more than fifteen years. Her programs combine this teaching and performing experience with her background as a researcher and historian.

Our Living Your Best series begins with coffee, breakfast pastries, and conversation at 9:30am. Program follows at 10:00am in the Ballroom.

You must pre-register at the LBS Management Office.

Cost is $5 / person.

Harlene

humidity tamps down any ambition to move more sprightly heat rankles clothes chafe no mercy today from sun's scorching scowl

distracted wanderer mind in sky
I stumble across a cracked warped bridge spanning withered grasses forest critters beneath lolling in its sleep
inducing shade

I daydream about miles of fine sand
a breaker pummeled coastland ocean currents spraying rock-strewn strands edging arctic Atlantic's lapping currents

my feet long to cross a cosmic bridge to an earth/water/sky hydrosphere where downy paths guide me to cool places with soft breezes verdant florae frisky fauna
a truly august expanse worth ambling

The Story of Our Land

Last week, Lake Barrington Shores residents gathered for an informative presentation by Sarah Voska of Bluestem Ecological Services, a local conservation company committed to protecting and enhancing natural spaces. They have been working with The Conservators to keep the natural landscapes surrounding the walking paths aesthetically pleasing while fostering a thriving and sustainable environment that enhances both our enjoyment of these areas and benefits nature.

The presentation began with a look at the area's pre-development days, when the area supported a thriving habitat for native plants and animals. Archival maps and historical photos revealed how the land has evolved over the years, from its natural state to farmland, and eventually, into the neighborhood we know today.

Residents were also introduced to the cultural significance of the land, including its ties to Indigenous groups, early settlers, and some key historical events. Stories of local "happenings" and some notable residents added depth to the land's identity. Sarah emphasized how urban growth has altered the landscape — and what can be done to restore balance which included suggestions such as planting native species, reducing pesticide use, and supporting nearby conservation projects.

The event wrapped up with an open Q&A session and then a short, guided walk along one of our shoreline paths. Sarah pointed out several plants, explained their advantages (or disadvantages) and gave suggestions as to how we can use them in our day-to-day lives — such as making liquors or adding to salads. The attendees left with renewed appreciation for the place we call home.

The Gardeners of the Shores, who hosted the presentation, thanks Sarah and Bluestem Ecological Services for sharing their expertise and looks forward to more opportunities to celebrate and protect our natural and historical heritage.

A Way Out

A Way Out is a life-saving program in Lake County that helps people access substance use treatment.

In the face of a growing epidemic, there is hope. Drug overdose is the leading cause of death in the United States for people under the age of 50⁺. And in Lake County, Illinois, overdose deaths rose 38 percent from 2016 to 2019². Each of these deaths represents someone's son, daughter, parent, or friend—a loved one whose life was cut short by addiction.

Through A Way Out, a person can:

- Walk into a participating police department
- Turn in any drugs and paraphernalia without fear of criminal charges (not required)
- Access inpatient or outpatient care

A Way Out aims to reduce overdoses and improve access to treatment. Treatment is provided through recovery support services, case management, and community resources.

A Way Out is available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.
